

Destination News - Issued 13th December 2022

Consultation on Open Space

Great Yarmouth Borough Council is asking people to provide feedback on the final draft of its Open Space Supplementary Planning Document (SPD). The consultation is taking place from November 25th to December 23rd 2022. To view the documents click here

Government commits to Short-term Rental Registration in Bill

The Government has tabled an amendment to the Levelling-up and Regeneration Bill, committing to a registration scheme for short-term rental properties. (Please refer to page 50 on this paper - click here for the details). The amendment is a clear indication of government commitment to a short term let registration scheme. A consultation on the scheme is being planned for early summer with the implementation by Autumn 2024.
